The trial of Philp was not concluded; but that a "real nice" Presidential "pil had been prepared and administered by some one is clearly enough shown. Fortunately the rescally trick was discovered in time; and so far as we can judge, it did the new President elect no great amount of harm-possibly good, for many Democrate it was alleged, were so disgusted a re whole affair, that they gave their wite to Garfield. We have, said General Garfield, "certain fixed and just principles which govern us in our treatment of emigrants, but those only are properly beneficiaries of those principles who come among us to stay and become part of us. We have the same right to protect ourselves from being overrun by hoppers or any other threatened danger. Whether or not there is danger of such an event is quite another question.

THE steamship Kang Chi, which was seen by the steamship Charles Townsend Hook ashore near Cami Point, in the Straits of Hairan, arrived here to-day. It appears she simply grounded at low water, and floated off again without receiving any damage, on the rising of the tide.

FROM American papers to hand it may be observed that a few of the public men in the States are beginning to take the view we have always expressed as to the bearing of the Burlingame Treaty upon the Chinese Question. We note that James A. Whitney, while delivering a lecture in New York lately against the maintenance of that highflown diplomatic document, declared that China had rendered the Treaty void by refusing to enact laws under its provisions, while the United States had fulfilled its obligations to the utmost. It does not seem to us that the result of the Special Commissioners' visit to Peking, on this subject materially improves the position as stated by Mr Whitney.

"THE negotiations regarding Kuldja has failed" may mean much, and it may also mean little. If great importance is to attached to the telegram, then it says little for Reuter that it was not deemed worthy of more than half a dozen words, or less There are two considerations which weigh in solving the meaning of the message. Uncertainty has been shown as to whether St. Petersburg or Peking should be the centre of the final settlement; and this may mean that another change has been made, and that the difficulty is to be settled in China. Again, there is scarcely anything definite known out of the immediate diplomativ cirole ; and even Renter cannot be regarded as an exception to the rule of ignorance... Only a fortnight ago it was sami-officially announced that the negotiations were progress-

OGEAN TEMPERATURES IN THE PACIFIC AND ATLANTIC.—Herr von Boguslawski has been it so far as that any partners would led, from the comparison of the results of recent deep sea investigations, to the following conclusions respecting the temper-1. The water of the North Pacific is, in its Atlantic. 2. The water of the South Pacific is, down to 1,300 meters (4,225 feet), gradually though very slowly decreases.

THE Singapore Times, of the 23rd Novemby the O. & U. steamer Oceanic, which ber, has a growl at mail agents, etc., in the brings San Francisco dates up to the 18th following paragraph :--

And now we have the staid old P, and O. Company playing a prank this morning which, if it did not make angels weep, made more mundande individuals use very explosive language near the Post t ffice and on Collyer Quay. The mail steamer Zemberi steamed into harbour about five o'clock yesterday evening, and it was notified, to the surprise of sverybody, that she would leave at 4 p.m. today with the homeward mails. Everybody went home with that impression, and made their mail arrangements accordingly. morning at six o'clock, and from that hour till ab ut half past seven, the Fort Canning Flagstaff signalled to town and country that the homeward mails closed at 2 p.m. to-day, and of course numbers hied into town intent upon their mail work. It was only to find that the Zamben's departure had been deferred till to-morrow, the mails closing at two o'clock and the steamer going at four o'clock. No notice of this coul. be found at the Post Office up to half past seven, but a clerk stated that he had heard or had been informed so, and a notification to that effect was found in the Club. Now who is responsible for the blundering at Fort Canuing Flagstaff? It was decided. we learn, last night about 7 o'clock that the steamer could not go till Wednesday afternoon. Why was this not properly notified and especially to the Signal Sergeant at Fort Canuing? And what was the object to originally intending to despatch the Zambesi to-day, when it was past five o'clock before she got into New Harbour, and when the natural, the fitting, the usual, almost traditional, time for despatching her, under those circumstances, that finally fixed upon. There has been a want of ounsideration for the public displayed in this matter all round which might be characterized in very strong language.

DOES IT REALLY MATTER! To the Editor of the " CHINA MAIL."

Bangkok, November 16. Sir,-Your paper of the 4th October has a letter from your Bangkok correspondent, who makes the statement in it that the King of Siam offered his yacht the Vesatri and the Regent offered his paddle steamer the apollo to Mr Palgrave for the purpose of going to Singapore to fatch his wife. am assured by those who have good means of information that the above statement is grossly untrue. Mr Palgrave asked s steamer first from the King and then from the Regent.

SUPREME COURT. IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION. (Before the Full Court.)

OF THE OPIUM PARM. To day Mr Francis opened his reply on behalf of the plaintiffs. He would follow. he said, as nearly as possible the line taken.up by his learned friend Mr Hayllar ing fayourably. We must wait for further in addressing the Court, and would take the events of the cuse in chronological order. In Feb. 1879 Ban Hap, one of the defendants in the case, became the legal holder of a very valuable monopoly, the Oolum Farm of Hongkong, for three years. He formed an exponention of capitalists to provide the money for the payment to Government of the fees which had been agreed on These fees were $615,000; the capital o the company was rather more $700,000 The company was called the Man Wo Fung

Co., and the capital was divided into 700 shares of $1000 each. The agreement to by his learned friend Mr Hayliar of the form this company was softramed that intention of their clients to register was on association of a company under the Companies Ordinance. It differed from ordinary partnership agreements inasmuch as it practically deprived the shareholders of any Toice in the management of the company and deputed all these powers to the Directors and to general meetings of the shereholders in which, of course, the majority ruled. There was nothing whatever in this agreement to show that it was not intended by those who signed the original agreement or who afterwards came in that it was to be a registered company under the provisions of the Com panice Ordinance. There were 54 or 58 subscribere | the evidence differed somewhat upon that point. He saked their Lord ships whether if any ? or 8 of the shareholders had gone the day after the agree ment and registered the timpany and any of the shareholders had then comb into Court and said that they did not intolic that it should be a registered company, the Court would have listened to them for moment, He contended not. It must be taken that in combining together all these was quite willing to admit that all that

Man Wo Fung Company limited were sa competent to register the company when they did do it, sixteen months afterwards, as they were the day after the agreement to form the company was made. He did not put entified to demand an account for the time when the company was not legally constituted, that is between the 24th Feb. and atures of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, the date of registration. The eight persons who registered the Man Wo Fund whole mam, colder than that of the North Company as a limited company were in fact authorised by the agreement of the 24th February to do so and were authorised by somewhat warmer than that of the Atlantic, so doing to bind themselves and their-partdepths and in the same degree of latitude; by that agreement. The Man Wo-Fung Co. low bottom temperatures as in the Antarctic | Wo Sang Co., Limited, was registered on to -0.6 C. have been measured. 4. In the separate place of business. Those who rewestern parts of the Pacific, and the ad- gistered the Man Wo Sang Co., Limited. gistered a new Company under a new name. If the signatures to the agreement of chest; by the agreement with the Yan W. February 24th bound all these persons. then they were members of the Man WoSang Co., Limited ; if not, if there were only the eight members, binding none save them-Seemingly Mail agents, Captains of Mail selves, and the Man Wo Fung Company mi ht be allowed to drop out of the case entirely. The plaintiffs were 20 out of the original 54 of the Man Wo Fung Company. On March 1 1880, according to the balance sheet issued to the shareholders. Ban Han had on that day in his bands money and opium to the value of $194,000, belonging to the whole 54 shareholders. The first preyer of the petition was that Ban Han be declared the trustee of the 54 priginal $194,000. His learned friend Mr Hayllar did not put himself in a legal position until November 3rd of the present year, when this case had begun.

The Chief Justice said both parties had been breaking the law, and they had it on very high authority that every transgression Mr Francis said there was nothing illegal In the agreement itself of February 24th.

He held the owe was one of a kind in which the judges had inclined to the opinion that the trustee was bound to sell the particular property in which he had spent the money of those for whom he was trustee and to divide the money equally among the contributories. This was what their clients asked with regard to the 194,000 worth. The learned Counsel referred to cases on the point. They were here not merely to ask for a winding up order, but this was an action in Changery on their rights, whatever they were. contended that the majority in a company like this could not be taken as binding the minority in the matter of the admission of new partners and fresh capital. He argued strongly that various decisions which he quoted indicated precisely as the course to be followed in a case of this kind, the realisation of the assets and property of the illegal company; the payment of the liabi ittes and the distribution of the balance among the subscribers. No damages could be obtained from such an illegal association for breach of contract, and no suit for the ontributions, but as to what should be done with the property that, he submitted was clear tenough. He fully admitted every word that had been said by his learned friend on the other aide as difficult p sition the Man Wo Fung had found itself, because of the opposition of the run Yes at Macao. But in an cepting the accounts they accepted th loss which was shown to have pocurred up to the date of their being made up They were bound to accept these accounts they had no claim to investigate them. He con ended that the assent of every individual shareholder was required before the shareholders could be increased and new capital brought in. Such a step could only be taken after a formal alteration of the articles of association, virtually embodied in the agreement of February 24th, and that could only be done by extraordinary meetings of the shareholders, and at any meeting of the kind every shareholder would have had ; right to dissent. But resting their case as they did mainly on the question of trusteeship, he put it to the Court that Ban Hap as the trustee for the 54 who were bound by the agreement of Feb. 24th could not camper with their interests; he must have the consent of every separate interest involved. By doing as he had done, without authority admitting new shareholders and more cap tal, he decreased the interest of every individual shareholder. There was no solidarity in the sobome, and the consent of no majority would bind the minority or any one of the minority. If this agreement was illegal, then all the agreements before them were illegal; they created no rights, and imposed or deposed no liabilities. The only document in existence legal and bind ing upon the parties, was that of February was a split, and a number of the sharehold pany, Limited, the Man Wo Sang, and i the property, and one of them the monopoly

In the suit for dissolution it had been proved that if this Court had decided that the Yan Wo was bound to boil for the Sun Yee, and was not in a position to boil for the Man Wo Fung than they would have been prepared to carry out that order. Other circumstances. including the fact that the losses were all incurred before No vember, showed that at the time amalgamation really did take place. there was not that dire necessity for i shareholders and account for that sum of which might have been advanced at an earlier period. The Man Wo Fung were therefore entitled to get much better terms than those on which the defendants desired to admit them. Tam Yuk Snan before this time had taken legal advice and had been informed that the Company had no legal position unless it were registered. He and those who acted along with him agreed to join the Yan Wo as a registered Company ; that was the first article in the agreement of the 23rd Feb., and from that agreement Ban Hap never had the slightest authority to depart. He did depart from it by amenting to the agreement of March 9th. Mr Francis then went through the two agreements of those dates to prove the different terms. In the one agreement that of February 23rd, which was the only one in existence, legally drawn and of any legal force, there were to be four shops to boiling opium for exportation, one of which was to be the Man Wo Fung, which was to
